7627 OLD RECEIVER ROAD
FREDERICK, MD. 21702

Dear Harold:

As I promised I would I went down to the library and got Professor David M. Kennedy's address (the Stanford fellow who expressed "outrage" for the Pulitzer group not selecting a prize for history this year).

Although I checked the Stanford University booklet for all the departments it did not have a specific address for Kennedy. The booklet, however, had an address to write to for "information" so I've put together an address for you that should enable you to write him directly. This is as follows:

PROFESSOR DAVID M. KENNEDY,
CHAIR - DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
STANFORD UNIVERSITY,
STANFORD, CA. 94305-3005
PHONE # 415 - 723 - 2300

Please note that the phone # is a phone for all departments so that if a call is placed undoubtedly the operator will switch to the particular department asked for.

I noted that from the booklet it would appear that Kennedy's "specialty" is U.S. government.

Kennedy teaches a graduate seminar course called "The U.S. in the 20th Century." (I wonder what he has to say in that course about the JFK case?).

You might also be interested in knowing that I just got back a "rejection slip" from the "Progressive" magazine. They rejected my review of your book. The editor, himself, (Erwin Knoll), stated "It does not meet our editorial needs at this time."

If I remember correctly Knoll expressed an opinion in one of his columns where he dismissed all critics as "conspiracy mongers" or something like that. I'm not surprised he rejected it. I've yet to see anything by him discussing the case & the odds are he never will.

I'll be in touch soon again.

Best,
Hal Verb
